

The Standards Interpretation Group (SIG) is available to answer specific questions about standa	rds and how they are organized around the f ow of services provided in a laboratory. The rationales and elements o	of performance will

Award certif cate decision will be ef ective the day after the last day of the survey. If the laboratory is not fully compliant with one o

In that case, the ef ective date is set retroactively as the date on which the last acceptable ESC that resolves all
The Joint Commission of ers a multi-laboratory system the option of using a modif ed survey process if it owns or The orientation session provides an opportunity for corporate staf to orient the surveyor or survey team to the and weaknesses. It also provides education related to accreditation survey f ndings across the system. The survey year cycle of accreditation. Facilitating this process is the	ICM Prof le – a comprehensive extranet workplace – that is required to perform an FSA and submit any f ndings does the need for updates and changes to policies and produces	cedures. Below are updates to specific procedures for does the need for updates and changes to policies and produces the need for updates and changes to policies and produces the need for updates and changes to policies and produces the need for updates and changes to policies and produces the need for updates and changes to policies and produces the need for updates and changes to policies and produces the need for updates and changes to policies and produces the need for updates and changes to policies and produces the need for updates and changes to policies and produces the need for updates and changes to policies and produces the need for updates and changes to policies and produces the need for updates and the	cedures. Below are updates to specif c procedures for does the need for updates and changes to policies and produced the need for updates and changes to policies and produced the need for updates and changes to policies and produced the need for updates and changes to policies and produced the need for updates and changes to policies and produced the need for updates and changes to policies and produced the need for updates and changes to policies and produced the need for updates and changes to policies and produced the need for updates and changes to policies and produced the need for updates and changes to policies and produced the need for updates and changes to policies and produced the need for updates and produced the need for updates and	cedures. Below are updates to specific procedures for process. Please view them often as they are there for your beneft and are frequently updated.

Laboratory Tracer Methodology Toolkit Leading Practice Library
Standards BoosterPaks™ Targeted Solutions Tool (TST) ™ and the Joint Commission Center for Transforming Healthcare that are customized to address your organization's specific barriers. The TST is located on Joint Commission Connect Joint Commission Resources (JCR) Customer Service Center (Toll Free) (877) 223-6866
Resources (JCR), is an af liate of The Joint Commission and can provide resources such as educational programs,