

Your Guide to Choosing an Accreditor for Your Nursing Home

HOW DOES  STAND OUT FROM THE CROWD?

Referrals and Recognitions

Helping to go on to become the effective and recognized from state, industry and professional. Joint Commission accreditation is a quality metric for payment approval, network participation and contractual licensing eligibility.

Most Recognized Standards

Developed through form of industry peer and nationally recognized people, our standards are considered the industry benchmark for quality and safety.

High Touch

For the phrase of accreditation journey, from getting started to maintaining our achievement, we have the people and staff ready to assist.

Organization-Wide Approach

By looking at the entire nursing home, we can help to minimize risk areas and increase the standard of excellence in everything you do.

Portfolio of Programs to Meet Your Distinct Quality Needs

We provide the industry's most comprehensive foundation for the delivery of consistent quality with focus on core program to address the unique need of multi-facility, corporate leaders, special certification, accreditation, accreditation, accreditation and accreditation.

Tracer-Guided Survey Experience

Our unique patient experience objectives and initiatives to place an individual in the action with organization, educating people to bring the while getting a real-time analysis of organization's strengths and challenges.

Employed Surveyor Team

The Joint Commission's surveyor cadre is experienced. Each surveyor has an average of 30 nursing home experience, allowing them to bring more field-based leading practices to you.

What Our Customers Say

Review of Customer Love Story from CEO of Joint Commission-accredited nursing home and nursing care facility.